

A ROYAL ATRIUM INN TESTIMONIAL

✧ Russell Borgman, Royal Atrium Inn Resident

ussell Borgman didn’t have to move to far to move to Royal Atrium Inn. “I lived across the road for 20 years,” he says, “and I had a condo in Florida where I used to spend some time.”

But as Russell’s physical needs increased, his doctor decided the trips to Florida would take too much of a toll on his health.

“I knew I needed some help,” Russell says, “so I decided to move to Royal Atrium Inn.”

Since moving, Russell enjoys his one-bedroom apartment and the help he gets. “They check on me here,” he says. “My lungs are bad, and it makes me feel better that they check on me 4 or 5 times a night.”

But Russell also enjoys the greater independence he feels since moving to an Assisted Living community. “The food is great—I never run out of things to eat, and I never have to cook. And I feel like I can do what I want here because I always have people looking after me.”

For Russell, though, the amenities are only a part of what he loves. “This is a great atmosphere,” he says. “The people are just tremendous. They know you by name on the first day.”

Russell is thankful he chose Royal Atrium Inn Assisted Living. “It’s a great thing to be here,” he says. ✧
