

A ROYAL PARK PLACE TESTIMONIAL

“It seems like there’s something for everyone here.”

✿ Hilda Dixon, Royal Park Place Resident

Hilda Dixon is a social person. She enjoys spending time with her friends and family, and that’s one of the reasons she moved to Royal Park Place in 2016.

“To be at a place where there’s more people, rather than being alone—that makes all the difference.”

Hilda knew she wanted to stay nearby, and she looked at all the options in Holland. But Royal Park Place stood out to her.

“It’s the Christian atmosphere. It makes all the difference. You see it in the way you’re treated—the staff is fantastic,” she says. “And the other residents are great—there are such sweet people here.”

Hilda also enjoys the abundance of activities, from fitness, to arts and crafts, to outings, to so many other recreational events. “There are so many activities, and it’s entirely up to you if you want to be involved. Nobody makes you do anything or tries to make you feel bad if you don’t want to participate,” Hilda says.

But Hilda says most people do find something to be a part of at Royal Park Place. “It seems like there’s something for everyone here,” she says.

And when she needs something, staff is right there to help. “They have a lot of feelings for us as individuals. I know I’m not just a customer here,” she says.

Hilda has many close friends here, but she has plenty of other visitors who come to see her new home. “My friends visit and say, ‘I can see how happy you are here,’” Hilda says, “and they’re right. I love it. I really do.” ✿
