

A VILLAGE WOODS TESTIMONIAL

“They treat me like family.”

✿ Mary Hahn, Village Woods Resident

his is Mary Hahn’s second time living at Village Woods. She loved retirement living here the first time around, but after a couple years, had an opportunity to live with family instead, so she moved out. Now she’s back, and pretty happy to be here.

“I was so glad to be back,” Mary says. “I was in this very same room. God works things out that are just what we need, and as silly as it sounds, being back in my room was just what I needed. It was like coming home.”

Mary moved here because, as independent as she has always been, and continues to be, there are times she needs a little help. Village Woods is there to assist.

“The staff here are so patient, so nice. They treat me like family.”

Mary loves plants and flowers and grows them in her apartment. This summer, she looks forward to planting and tending to the poolside greenery. “They say anyone can help with that, so I definitely will.”

But Mary also enjoys the many indoor activities available. “I play bingo. I play bunco. I go to exercise class. You can do most anything. Some days you feel like doing a lot, but other days you don’t. It’s completely your choice.”

Mary likes the food, the people, and the outings. But what she really loves is having someplace she belongs. She has a community here where she can connect with people like her, and she always has someone to talk to. She met another new resident who was also starting a new chapter in her life, and they have become close friends.

When asked if she thinks she’s here to stay, Mary says, “Definitely. It’s like I never left. This is home.” ✿
